

Family Camp Packing List (2025)

Camper yurts have limited space to store belongings, so please try to fit personal clothing and gear into one medium sized duffle bag/suitcase, plus a backpack and bedding. Those flying to camp or anyone unable to bring bedding or other items should notify the director ahead of time so we can lend you what is needed. Please keep in mind that anything you bring to camp may get dirty, damaged, or lost. Name labels are highly recommended!

Necessary Items:

- Casual clothing for 3 days (long and short sleeve shirts, pants, extra underclothes & socks.)
- Warm clothes for cold nights (sweatshirt/sweater, hat, coat/warm jacket, warm PJs).
- Rain jacket or sturdy poncho (not emergency/disposable poncho, expect rain storms!)
- Sturdy shoes/sneakers
- Flip flops for showers
- Water bottles
- Sun hat/cap for daily wear
- Sunscreen, lip balm/chapstick
- Swim suit and two towels
- Water shoes/strap on sandals, required for those wanting to swim in the lake
- Warm sleeping bag plus blanket, twin fitted sheet (camp only supplies mattress, but has extra bedding if needed)
- Tooth brush, comb, soap and shampoo (fragrance free preferred)
- Flashlight and extra batteries
- Sturdy daypack for daily use at camp and on hikes
- Adequate supplies of any personal medications, prescription and/or OTC, in original containers

Group supplies: Please contact if you can bring/donate to camp!

- Hammocks or camp cots
- Portable HEPA air cleaners/filters
- Extra COVID-19 rapid antigen tests
- Sport equipment to share

Optional Items:

- PFD (lifejacket) for your children, if you would like them to boat or swim in the lake. Camp has PFDs for youth and adults, and a couple small child sizes.
- Musical instruments and song books
- Earplugs (ranch dogs often bark at night)
- Journal, sketch book, books to read
- 1-2 white cotton shirts for craft projects
- Bug spray (non aerosol)
- Extra fruit to share with camp
- Foldable camp chair
- Earplugs (ranch dogs often bark at night)
- Pillow (camp has extra)
- Extra snacks for your family (please store in your car, no food in yurts)
- Electronics and Valuables (bring at your own discretion, and please try to limit unnecessary use of electronics during camp.)

Do not bring ('tis a gift to be simple):

- Weapons of any kind (foldable pocket knife ok, keep in your procession or locked in car)
- Alcohol, tobacco, cannabis or any illegal drugs
